The Riverside Gazette

Council approves budget

ALPHA The city council approved a budget of 12 million dollars on Tuesday after 3 hours of debate. Members voted 7 to 2 in favour of the plan, which funds 15 new teachers and repairs to the north bridge. The city council approved a budget of 12 million dollars on Tuesday after 3 hours of debate. Members voted 7 to 2 in favour of the plan, which funds 15 new teachers and repairs to the north bridge.

Library extends hours

BRAVO The public library will stay open until 9 pm on weekdays starting next month. The change follows a survey of 400 residents in which most respondents asked for evening access to study rooms. The public library will stay open until 9 pm on weekdays starting next month. The change follows a survey of 400 residents in which most respondents asked for evening access to study rooms.

Market returns Saturday

CHARLIE The farmers market returns on Saturday with 35 vendors selling produce, bread and flowers. Organisers expect 2,000 visitors if the weather holds and will close the square to traffic from 7 am. The farmers market returns on Saturday with 35 vendors selling produce, bread and flowers. Organisers expect 2,000 visitors if the weather holds and will close the square to traffic from 7 am.